SAT Sunday Testing: You may only request Sunday testing if your religious observance prohibits your ability to test on a published Saturday test date, and this conflict is validated by an official clergy letter. Sunday testing is not available for individuals who would normally test on Saturday. Sunday test dates immediately follow each Saturday test date, unless there is a conflict with a religious holiday. Testing on both Saturday and Sunday is not permitted, and Sunday testing is not available in India or Pakistan.

If you are registering for Sunday testing for the FIRST TIME, register by paper as follows:

1. Sign up for a College Board account and Register here:
<https://satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat/registration>
2. Submit an explanation letter of religious observance from your cleric on letterhead from your religious institution. (please contact your Pastor)
3. Submit your registration with proper payment and letter from your cleric A) no later than the deadline date for regular registration if you are testing in the United States or U.S. Territories or Commonwealths
4. Telephone help: (866)-756-7346

If you've TESTED PREVIOUSLY on a Sunday, register as follows:

1. Register here: <https://satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat/registration>
2. Telephone help: (866)-756-7346

SAT Fee Waivers

SAT fee waivers are available to low-income 11th- and 12th-grade students in the U.S. or U.S. territories. U.S. citizens living outside the country might also be eligible for fee waivers.

You're eligible if one or more of these descriptions apply to you:

- You're enrolled in or eligible to participate in the federal National School Lunch Program (NSLP).
- Your family's annual income falls within the Income Eligibility Guidelines set by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service.
- You're enrolled in a federal, state, or local program that aids students from low-income families, for example, TRIO programs like Upward Bound. (AAA counts)
- Your family receives public assistance.
- You're homeless or live in federally subsidized public housing or a foster home.
- You're a ward of the state or an orphan.
